- d. BOR Nominating Committee. Chairman Shea provided the report.
- e. Chancellor's Report. Chancellor Kirwan thanked President Perman for hosting the meeting and welcomed the newest members of the USM Board of Regents, Jim Brady and Michelle A. Gourdine. He also recognized new regents who will join the Board on July 1, 2015 - Bobby Neall, Bob Pevenstein, and the next student regent, Sydney Comitz. The Chancellor also recognized Chancellor-designee Bob Caret.

Chancellor Kirwan highlighted the numerous accomplishments across the USM. He recognized Regent Augustine's work on the Augustine Commission, which presented 32 recommendations to leaders in Annapolis on how Maryland can create more jobs and support the growth of business. He also reported that he testified to Congress in support of the recent report from the Task Force on Federal Regulation of Higher Education. He also noted the continuing recognition received by USM's Effectiveness and Efficiency (E&E) Initiative and that USM was kicking off the next generation of E&E to further enhance student success, improve academic operations, streamline administrative processes, reduce costs, and strengthen higher education's positive impact on the state of Maryland.

The Chancellor recognized the passing of A. James Clark, who was a tremendous benefactor for UMCP, an honorary Trustee of the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, and a member of the University of Maryland's Board of Regents.

Chancellor Kirwan described the current status of the operating and capital budget for USM for FY 2016 and provided highlights on key pieces of legislation that were proposed. He thanked PJ Hogan, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Government Relations, and his team on their hard work and leadership during the session.

2. Report of Councils.

- a. Council of University System Presidents. President Dudley-Eshbach provided the report on the President's Council meetings for March 2 and April 6, 2015. The Chancellor and presidents met with MHEC Acting Secretary Hunter-Cevera and discussed various issues related to MHEC and its role in higher education in the State of Maryland. The presidents also discussed the State Voluntary Separation Program and the presidents agreed that a USM VSP program be included as part of retirement incentives to be considered under E & E 2.0 strategies. Mr. Vivona briefed the presidents on the nonexempt pay program recommendations agreed to earlier this year. Chancellor Kirwan and Mr. Vivona briefed the presidents on the concerns/comments raised at recent BPW meetings regarding contracts for USM construction projects. Finally Chancellor Kirwan discussed the current status of the USM and State budgets in the final week of the legislative session.
- b. Council of University System Faculty. Dr. Virletta Bryant, Chair, provided the Council report. The Council was briefed the legislative session, USM's recent activities with the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) concerning the implementation of the Wellness Program and the BOR E & E 2.0 initiative. CUSF is undergoing an internal review of the BOR Faculty Awards policy to clarify the requirements and streamline the application process.

- Finally, CUSF received the report of the Shared Governance Review Committee on the state of shared governance at UMUC.
- c. Council of University System Staff. Mr. Crockett reported that the Council held its USM Staff Advocacy Day on March 26 in Annapolis. Assistant Vice Chancellor Andy Clark briefed the Council about the latest legislation and activities impacting the USM. Delegate Clarence Lam, an alumnus of UMB, described how shared governance shaped his lens of governance and impacted his freshman year in Annapolis. Following the meeting, the council was recognized in both chambers of the assembly and council members visited the offices of their delegates and senators.
 - d. University System of Maryland Student Council. Mr. McGee reported on the activities of the council. The council members agreed that there should not be a mandated financial literacy course, but rather a MOOC that utilizes a multi-touch point model that is accessible and promoted to students regularly along with financial coaches on each campus. The council will be distributing their annual Shared Governance Survey to student leaders at both the graduate and undergraduate levels in the coming weeks; results will be reported directly to Chancellor Kirwan and Chancellor-Designate Caret. Council members had an opportunity to meet with Congressman Hoyer and were given the chance to voice broad concerns about higher education, including issues on college affordability, the It's On Us campaign, the Maryland Open-Source Textbook Initiative, and the students on adjudication procedures. Finally, David Lewis and Zach McGee had the opportunity to present to the President's Student Leadership Institute at UMB as part of their outreach efforts.
