ANALYSIS OF KEY PROVISIONS OF CURRENT BOR POLICY FOR EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS (VI-13.00)	AND PROPOSED REVISED POLICY
CURRENT BOR POLICY	PROPOSED REVISED POLICY
Each institution must have a comprehensive Emergency Preparedness Plan (EPP)	Each institution must have a comprehensive Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Should have Individual designated as lead	Should have Individual designated as lead
Establish clear lines of authority for oversight and management	Establish clear lines of authority for oversight and management
Based on principles of Incident Command Systems and National Incident Management Systems	Based on principles of Incident Command Systems and National Incident Management Systems
Creation of permanent Emergency Preparedness Committee	Creation of a permanent Emergency Preparedness Committee which meets regularly
Coordination with local and state emergency responders	Coordination with local, state and federal emergency responders including communications systems
Creation of permanent behavioral assessment team	Creation of permanent behavioral assessment team
Conduct an annual risk assessment	Conduct an annual risk assessment
Mitigation plan should identify top threats and include mitigation action plans	Mitigation plan should identify top threats and include mitigation action plans
Action plan to achieve accreditation for police	If police force is not accredited, have action plan to achieve accreditation
Plan should include continuation of IT services, communications and critical business functions	Plan should include continuation of IT services, communications and critical business functions
Conduct regular testing and evaluation of campus emergency plans	Conduct regular testing and evaluation of campus emergency plans
Provide regular and appropriate training for campus community	Provide regular and appropriate training for campus community
Trovide regular and appropriate training for campus community	Trovide regular and appropriate training for campus community
Have a comprehensive communication plan for emergency warnings/alerts for campus community and the public	Have a comprehensive communication plan for emergency warnings/alerts for campus community and the public
Have a comprehensive communication plan for campus community in the event of an emergency	Have a comprehensive communication plan for campus community in the event of an emergency
Have programs to advise, involve and solicit feedback from students on campus safety & security and	Have programs to advise, involve and solicit feedback from students on campus safety & security
emergency preparedness	and emergency preparedness Training for BAT on information sharing and privacy issues
Have redundant and varied warning and communication systems	Have redundant and varied warning and communication systems
An Emergency Operations Center (EOC) for use in response to specified emergencies	Have an emergency operations center (EOC) to collect and analyze data, coordinate resources, and have situational awareness. EOC staff should be well trained, have appropriate authority and be equipped with appropriate resources mutual aid agreements (MAAs), and other agreements with other USM institutions and organizations COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of the institution's EOPs to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR Policy VI -13.00 assess. USM Internal Audit review will include an assessment of the institution's EOPs to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR Policy VI -13.00 assess. Additional Areas Identified Additional Areas Identified Establish MOUs with other USM institutions and organizations Establish and maintain current cooperative relationships which may include MOUs and mutual aid agreements (MAAs), and other agreements with other USM institutions and organizations COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Utilization mutual aird agreements (MAAs), and other agreements with other USM institutions and organizations COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Ut	Include local and state emergency organizations in plan	Include local, state and federal emergency planning

mutual aird agreements (MAAs), and other agreements with other USM institutions and organizations COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Ut
Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Utilization of facility	Establish MOUs with other USM institutions and organizations	mutual aid agreements (MAAs), and other agreements with other USM institutions and
Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards Accreditation of police force Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Utilization of facility hazards Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Use of satellite phones and emergency network radios Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution	COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services	COOP plan in place for continuation of essential services
Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Each institution should maintain an updated campus here gency building occordinators building response teams USM Internal Audit review will include an assessment of the institution's EOPs to ensure the plans are in compliance	Testing should include a variety of tabletop exercises, drill and full-scale exercises based on top hazards
Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams Each institution should maintain an updated campus here gency building occordinators building response teams USM Internal Audit review will include an assessment of the institution's EOPs to ensure the plans are in compliance	Accreditation of police force	Strive to achieve and maintain accreditation of police force
Use of satellite phones and emergency network radios Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations diffrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution	, and administration of points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) and the points (or the points) are the points (or the points) are the points	on to define to distinct the distinct of points to the distinct of the distinc
Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations of the institution	Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams	Utilization of facility coordinators or building response teams
Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations of the institution
Each institution is required to submit its EPP to the USM office by January 12, 2009, for review and approval in accordance with the basic standards specified in Section I.A. above. USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations of the institution	Use of satellite phones and emergency network radios accordance with BOR Policy VI-13.00 and the plan should be available for review by USM or USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations in Irastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution		accordance with BOR Policy VI-13.00 and the plan should be available for review by USM
determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy Campus plans should be updated annually and any major revisions submitted to the USM office Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution
Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution	USM Internal Audit reviews will include an assessment of campus emergency management plans to (1) determine if the basic standards in I.A. are met and (2) the status of the campus in meeting the best practice standards in I.B. of this policy to ensure the plans are in compliance with BOR policy
Additional Areas Identified EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution	Campus plans should be undated annually and any major revisions submitted to the LISM office
EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation. Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution	campus plans should be aparted annually and any major revisions submitted to the osm onice
EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operation. Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution
Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013) Senior leadership must meet as needed to review program and incidents and set priorities, strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution		Additional Areas Identified strategies and actions. Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution		EOP should follow federal guidance: The Guide for Developing High-Quality Emergency Operations Plan for Institutions of Higher Education (2013)
Have a recovery plan that will address capacity building, economic function and infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution infrastructure necessary to restore the mission of the institution		Establish program based on standards set by professional emergency management organizations
Note: These are best practices but not mandated Note: These are best practices but not mandated
Note: These are best practices but not mandated
	Note: These are best practices but not mandated	