Plenary Speaker

Douglas Harrison, Associate Dean, Graduate School, University of Maryland University College

Douglas Harrison is Associate Dean of the Graduate School at UMUC. His administrative and leadership experience has focused on faculty affairs, faculty development, and university governance. Prior to joining UMUC, Dr. Harrison held administrative and faculty appointments at Trinity Washington University and James Madison University. He also consults with colleges and universities on the use of academic portfolios in faculty performance assessment and evaluation and currently leads UMUC's Initiative on Academic Integrity. His scholarship has been recognized with the National Education Association's Award for Excellence in the Academy and the John W. Kluge Fellowship at the Library of Congress. Dr. Harrison received his bachelor's degree from the Pierre Laclède Honors College at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, and his master's and doctoral degrees from Washington University in St. Louis.
