University System of Maryland Board of Regents Meeting Expectations for Attendees

The public is welcome to observe public meetings of the Board of Regents, conducted in accordance with the Maryland Open Meetings Act.

All attendees are expected to:

- Maintain respectful and orderly behavior at all times
- Refrain from disruptive conduct
- Avoid signs, displays, or actions that obstruct views or interfere with the meeting
- Participate in public comment only during designated periods, with prior approval, and in accordance with Board guidelines
- Remain seated and keep aisles and exits clear

Failure to comply may result in removal from the meeting. Consistent with Maryland law, the Board may recess or adjourn the meeting if order cannot be maintained.
