Call to Order. Chair Linda Gooden called the meeting of the University System of Maryland Board of Regents to order at 8:33 a.m. on Friday December 10, 2021 at Bowie State University. Those in attendance were: Chair Gooden; Regents Attman, Bartenfelder (virtual), Beams, Breslin, Fish, Gill, Gonella, Gourdine, Hur, Leggett, Neall, Peters, Pope, Rauch, Smarick, and Wood; Presidents Anderson, Breaux, Fowler, Goodwin, Hrabowski, Jarrell, Jenkins, Nowaczyk, Pines, Schatzel, Interim Provost Anderson for Schmoke, and Wight; Vice Chancellors Boughman, Herbst, Hogan, McDonough, and Raley; Ms. Mulqueen, Ms. Wilkerson, and AAG Langrill.

Chair Gooden began by noting how productive the last year has been for the USM. She cited our 8 new Regents, launching of the Intercollegiate Athletics and Student-Athlete Health and Welfare Committee, the installation of 3 presidents, opened 4 new buildings, and demonstrated safety for our campuses during the pandemic.

She also highlighted the focus on the future through the strategic plan and the launching of two presidential search committees. She closed out her remarks by thanking the employees of the USM, the Chancellor, Presidents, Regents, and our partners throughout the state.

Welcome from Bowie State University. President Breaux welcomed everyone to Bowie State University and provided some updates on the institution.

Educational Forum: USM Economic Impact on the State of Maryland. USM’S Venture Development Director, Lindsay Ryan, presented information on the USM’s impact on workforce development and economic growth.

Chancellor’s Report. Chancellor Perman presented his report. He started off by thanking Lindsay Ryan and Ellen Herbst and reiterating the huge economic impact the USM has on the state. He thanked President Breaux and BSU for hosting and discussed some recent accomplishments at the institution. He also highlighted recent university rankings, particularly those focused on engagement and inclusivity. He went more in depth about some community engagement initiatives at several campuses.

Chancellor Perman noted that we continue to advance our missions including education, discovery, and economic impact, and highlighted some accomplishments in those areas. He let everyone know that the USM 2022 Annual Report will be released soon. He indicated that USM is closely following the Omicron variant and encourage everyone to get their booster shots.

Chancellor Perman ended by thanking everyone and voicing his hope for a bright new year.

1. Council Reports

   a. Council of University System Presidents (CUSP). President Breaux presented the report stating that CUSP continues to convene bi-weekly and the first Monday of every month to address systemwide matters. The December 1st meeting focused mainly on the Omicron variant and how each campus is handling the uptick in cases. During the December 6th CUSP meeting, the presidents discussed several other issues including academic integrity, the $15 minimum wage increase, strategic planning, faculty annual leave carryover, and collective bargaining. USG Director Anne Khademian also provided an update on USG.

   b. University System of Maryland Student Council (USMSC). Ms. Harper presented the USMSC report. She started with an overview of the joint council meeting in November. She noted that the Executive Council would like to have town halls modeled after the three breakout rooms from the joint meeting: Hybrid Learning & Work Environments, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Work, and Mental Health Resource & Support. USMSC would also like to have a systemwide mental health day in the spring. The Council held Student Regent interviews on December 5, 2021 and sent four names to Chancellor Perman. Ms. Harper closed by saying that she hopes to have more one-on-one meetings with representatives of the undergraduate and graduate councils in the new year.

   c. Council of University System Faculty (CUSF). Dr. Brunn presented the report. She discussed that the Academic Integrity Subcommittee has created a brief survey for Faculty Senate Chairs to determine views around academic integrity as a working norm. She noted that Presidents Wight and Hrabowski will participate in a Faculty Town Hall in February centered around structural equality. She highlighted other topics such as additional surveys for distribution to all faculty around cybersecurity and Covid, budget discussions, the CUSF constitution and bylaws, and the shared governance report.

   d. Council of University System Staff (CUSS). Dr. Shishineh presented the report. She provided a recap of the Joint Council meeting held in November, noting that they heard from guest speakers and participated in breakout rooms. Each Council Chair/President also shared a “State of the Council”.

2. Public Comment. Chair Gooden noted that four emails were received regarding the vaccine mandate. She read two of the emails and noted that responses would be sent to all who contacted the USM.
3. Consent Agenda. The Consent Agenda was presented to the regents by Chair Gooden. She asked if there were any items on the agenda that should be removed for further discussion. There were no requests to remove any items. Chair Gooden moved and Regent Pope seconded the motion to accept the consent agenda. The motion was unanimously approved. The items included were:
